Fund Manager Comment

The Parallel Market (Nomu) demonstrated relatively stable performance during the second quarter of 2026, with the Fund's benchmark index increasing by 0.13% compared to the previous quarter's closing level, amid continued market volatility alongside geopolitical tensions in the region and fluctuations in oil prices and energy markets, which impacted investors' risk appetite. It is worth noting that IPO and new listing activity witnessed a relative decline over the past twelve months. In addition, the IPO of Rukn Al-Kisaei Medical Company was cancelled, reflecting increased selectivity among investors. Looking ahead, the market is expected to maintain a cautiously positive trend, while IPO activity may regain momentum during the final quarter of this year, supported by market performance.
